FROM THE

GANG

SUPER BOWL SUNDAY

Big Crowd, Big Cameras, fumbles, and at the end of the day everyone was dirty! It was that kind of day in the spirit of Super Bowl XXXIV. Latin Gun and Mule Skinner each had a rough day on the grid iron with one turn over each. Must have been the game day jitters as cameras were about covering the big match. The partisan crowd was out in numbers giving support to all the participants including a couple of rookies that shot with us for the first time. Welcome to The Mad Ox and Jim Bean. The temperature was comfortable, but the occasional wind gusts wreaked havoc on the passing game and umbrellas alike. What was anticipated as a defensive struggle turned into a wide open offensive attack which made for a very entertaining match for the large number of spectators. Unfortunately the breakneck speeds and the spectacular train wrecks resulted in a couple of stage DQ's and no clean shooters. When the dust settled the two Survivors/ Ladies and Men's Overall Winners were Not So Dead Maverick and Lead Dispencer. If you're not going to Winter Range come on out next month for more fun and excitement!
